STATE BALLET SCHOOL BERLIN

The State Ballet School, founded in 1951, was merged with the School for Acrobatics Arts in 1991 and now operates under the name Staatliche Ballett- und Artistikschule Berlin.

As a public school, it offers students the opportunity to pursue a professional education as state-certified stage dancers, while also receiving general education on a state-of-the-art campus. This unique training structure has proven successful and allows for continuous artistic transformation in dance education.

The State Ballet School Berlin's educational mission is to develop in its students the high quality of dance required by the profession while promoting and maintaining their health.

TASKS OF THE ASSOCIATION INCLUDE:

- Financial support for students
- Assistance with the acquisition of materials for rehearsals and performances
